

Are you ready for the Shark Tank?

Cardiovascular Nanomedicine Competition

Win a $10,000 Research Award

Submit a proposal to compete in the “Shark Tank” Competition at “The New Frontier of RNA Nanotherapeutics” conference on Oct. 24, 2022. Three research teams will be selected to pitch their innovative ideas in the field of cardiovascular nanomedicine to a panel of judges and compete for a $10,000 award. Each team will have 5 minutes to present, followed by 10 minutes of discussion. The judges (Sharks) will vote on the winning project deemed to be the most likely to be translated toward the clinic.

Letter of Intent (LOI) submission deadline: Sept. 2, 2022

Submit your LOI to: events@houstonmethodist.org
